THAT THE PRINCE OF MAGICIANS

is justly a ried PRINCE OF MAGICIANS KING OF WIZARDS.

I have witnessed several of Professor Adrieu's magical performances, which were so astonishing that many persons thought that they could not be done without the aid of some other than mere human power. Adrieu's Furnished Tea Table, Pails of Water, and some other tricks, were enough to make the superstitious timorous and the credulous afraid; but he afterwards assured the audience (private parties) that at a proper time he would be ready to show the philosophy of his performances, and prove that all were mere magical litusions.

I think it is no more than justice to make the above statement, as I find there are many reports circulated respecting Adrien's performances which, it uncontradicted, might prejudice the public against witnessing his wonderful feats.

Hear want Rev. Dr. Snaw, of Demarara, West Indies, and so wonderful were two or three of his tricks that the question was raised whether such things could be done without supernatural aid.

I think that a large class of persons foud of amusement and instruction will be delighted with Professor Adrien.
